Welcome to CORENation University!

We are excited to have you as part of the CORENation family! This handbook is designed to help you understand your responsibilities as a student, uphold a lifestyle of integrity, and thrive academically, spiritually, and socially. As you grow in your calling and leadership, may this guide serve as a resource for your journey.

1. Student Philosophy

At CORENation University, we believe in developing Spirit-led leaders who walk in excellence, purpose, and integrity. Our approach to education is holistic—nurturing the heart, soul, mind, and strength of every student. We are committed to:

- Christ-centered transformation
 - Academic and spiritual excellence
 - A community of honor and accountability
 - Lifelong learning and ministry preparation

2. Code of Conduct

All CORENation students are expected to:

- Honor Christ in words, actions, and lifestyle.
- Demonstrate integrity in academics, relationships, and ministry.
- Respect all individuals, regardless of race, gender, culture, or background.
- Refrain from dishonesty, cheating, plagiarism, and any form of academic misconduct.
- Uphold purity and morality, avoiding substance abuse, sexual immorality, and divisive behavior.
- Cultivate a servant's heart by engaging in ministry and community service.

Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, including warnings, suspension, or dismissal.

3. Academic Expectations

- Submit all assignments on time.
- Maintain honest and original work.
- Attend all virtual or in-person class sessions unless excused.
- Communicate promptly with instructors when challenges arise.

Academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) will result in academic penalties and potential disciplinary review.

4. Attendance Policy

Regular participation in class is essential to your growth and success. Students are expected to:

- Attend all scheduled sessions.
- Notify instructors ahead of time when absent.
- Make up missed work promptly.

Three unexcused absences may result in course failure.

5. Computer, Email, and Internet Policy

Students are expected to use technology responsibly and ethically:

- University Email: Must be checked regularly for class updates and communication.
- Internet Use: Only for academic or ministry purposes during study time.
- Respect Privacy: Do not share or misuse another person's data or account.
- Cyber Conduct: Any form of cyberbullying, harassment, or inappropriate behavior is strictly prohibited.

Misuse of technology may lead to disciplinary review.

6. Dress Code (for In-Person or Virtual Appearances)

- Dress modestly and professionally, reflecting godly values.
 - Avoid clothing with offensive, vulgar, or suggestive messages.

7. Disciplinary Process

CORENation University reserves the right to address student behavior that is contrary to its mission and values. The steps may include:

1. Verbal or written warning
2. Meeting with the Dean or Director
3. Probation or suspension
4. Dismissal from the institution

Appeals can be submitted in writing to the Student Affairs Office within 10 business days.

8. Student Life and Spiritual Formation

- Engage in devotional and prayer activities.
 - Participate in online chapel or ministry opportunities.
 - Seek mentorship and spiritual growth.

9. Academic Support

Resources are available to help you succeed:

- Instructor Office Hours
 - Peer Discussion Boards
 - Academic Advising
 - Writing and Research Support

10. Contact and Communication

- All official communication will be sent to your CORENation University email.
 - Keep your contact information updated with the Registrar.
 - Respect response times—allow 24–48 hours for email replies from faculty/staff.

We are honored to walk with you as you pursue your God-given assignment. Let this handbook guide you in a life of order, excellence, and spiritual authority.
